Dear Prof. Perdigão

Thank you for the additional help with our paper:

“Emergent constraints for the climate system as effective parameters of bulk differential equations”

We have implemented the requested edits and typos spotted by the reviewer.

We appreciate the editorial view that this manuscript has the potential to provide much underpinning theoretical understanding of the technique of emergent constraints.

The latest LaTeX files are now uploaded to the ESD server. Please do not hesitate to contact me if there are any further queries.

Thank you again for your help.

Yours sincerely
